- Create Better Displays in Less Time
- Lower Maintenance Costs

Gallery System Art Displays helps people create better art displays with less effort, by providing elegantly simple art hanging systems. We've been in business since 1995, and our systems are in use at tens of thousands of installations—art galleries, schools, Ivy League universities, large and small businesses, libraries, art studios, and homes across the US and Canada.

Since the beginning, we have prioritized personal service, customer satisfaction, and providing a great environment for people to work in. That makes business more enjoyable, and also helps build mutually beneficial long-term relationships.

A Great Investment

“Our Gallery System has been a great investment. The easily adjustable hanging systems enable program leaders to quickly create professional-looking displays without assistance from our facilities staff, and ensure that walls remain undamaged.”

Carol Silver Elliott, President and CEO, Jewish Home Family, provider of elder care and services in Bergen, Hudson and Rockland counties, New Jersey.

A Game-Changer

“Being able to display my art using a hanging system in my own home has been a game-changer.”

Haley Coleman

Lets the Art Speak for Itself

“We’re really happy with our new Gallery System — it’s easy to adjust for different-sized artworks in a variety of media, and it gives our gallery a professional, contemporary look. It lets the art speak for itself.”

Dr. Elizabeth Peña, Director, Doug Adams Gallery, Center for the Arts & Religion Graduate Theological Union, Berkeley, CA
